

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXVI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1897.

NO. 44

Shelby City.

The storm Saturday blew trees down in the woods of Messrs. John Pulliam and W. E. McAfee and limbs of trees in several yards around here.

Wiborg, Hanna & Co., have built an eight foot paling fence around their reservoir near the Christian church, so that stock can not injure the banks.

Thieves entered the house of Mrs. Hayes Thursday night and secured $7 belonging to the Misses Uppington, of Lexington, while they were all at church.

Bro. Boswell preached many good sermons while here, but none better than the one he delivered Sunday night from 11 Peter 1, 5, 6, 7, when he took occasion to cry down the evils in our too little cities, especially intemperance and the unlawful selling of goods on Sunday by members of the churches which it is to be hoped, the influence of the meeting will stop.

The nominating committee of the Christian Endeavor selected the following officers for the next six months: Messrs. George Aarons, pres., R. N. Hunn, vice pres.; Miss Lucy Hussing, cor. sec'y.; Mr. Matt Engleman, rec. sec'y.; Miss Katherine Cox, treas. and Miss Mayme Williams, organist and chairman of the Lookout, Prayer and Social committees respectively.

Linnietta Springs has been a very popular resort for Danville people the past month, sometimes as many as 50 come out in one afternoon to partake of its waters and rest 'neath the shade of its trees. If the Danville pike was a free turnpike, the grounds would scarcely hold the crowd that would come in the cool of the evening. Eld J. S. Kendrick and wife, of the Christian church, Danville, are regular visitors at Linnietta.

The protracted meeting closed Tuesday night with eight additions that night, making 56 in all during the meeting and 60 during Bro. Boswell's pastorate. The following have been received by baptism since last report: Misses Katie Wells Verna Boyce, Birdie McGraw, Oma Cozatt, Hettie Powell, Willie Hulton, Lizzie Hood, Mary and Fannie Moore, Allie Johnson, Mrs. Russell Figg, Messrs. Geo. Singleton, Russell Figg and Wm. Trosper. Fourteen were also received by letter, restoration, and from the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, the past week. There were baptisms every day during the past week except two, in the reservoir near the church. Bro. Boswell has preached every night except the ones supplied by Elders Kendrick, of Danville, and Severance, of Stanford, the first week of the meeting. He went to Crab Orchard Wednesday to begin a protracted meeting there. Our church has been very much strengthened and is more harmonious now than ever before. The following officers were chosen Monday night: Elders, Holland, A. A. Surber and Dr. Chase. Deacons, N. B. DePauw, R. L. Reynolds, Sandusky, Dr. Steele, W. A. Reynolds and Matt Engleman.

Miss Evelyn Guerrant, of Danville, has been the guest of Misses Clyde and Nellie Burke this week. Miss Emily Moss, of Glasgow, is with her friend, Miss Mary Powell. Misses Dollie and Jessie Coulter, of Middleburg, spent last week with their cousin, Miss Alice Williams. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Holmes, who have been boarding at Mr. Wells' the past six months, will leave the last of this week for their home in Michigan. Miss Lena Yowell, of Hustonville, is with her relative Mrs. Lingle. Miss Maggie Welch, of Pineville, is visiting Misses Mary and Laura Sandidge. Miss Edna Johnson has returned from a lengthy visit to her sister, Mamie, at Corbin. David Moore, Jr., who has been with his uncle, Mr. Mack Moore, at Cottage, Mo., the past 18 months, surprised all at home by arriving here Sunday to stay in Kentucky in the future. Mr. John Cosby, of Cincinnati, has been here the past week visiting relatives here and at Danville. Mr. Ed Sweeney is back again after a pleasant trip to his father's in Kansas. Deputy Sheriff W. L. Young, who was so badly wounded last November, is here visiting his sisters, Mrs. John S. Moore and Mrs. W. E. Grubbs. He walks with a crutch and a cane yet.

PIKE ELECTION.—The proper orders have been made, says the Advocate, for taking the sense of the voters of Boyle county in November, as to whether or not the turnpikes shall be purchased and made free. At the same time voters will be asked to give an expression authorizing the fiscal court, in case the free pike question carries, to issue bonds to an amount necessary to buy the roads. Under this arrangement, if both propositions are adopted, the county will be able to proceed without delay in carrying out the wishes of the majority. This is the way it should have been done in Lincoln and it would have been had not "Judge" Dawson gone of half cocked in his effort to score a point. A new election, however, can right matters and not delay the execution of the will of the people.

LANCASTER.

The Baptist association will begin Aug. 24, instead of 20th, as stated in my last letter.

T. J. Hatcher has purchased a house and lot on Danville Ave. from W. G. Anderson and will move here in September. Your loss will be our gain.

Misses Margaret Murphy and Amanda Anderson have been to Lake Chatqua. They are two of our best teachers and Miss Murphy won a prize on spelling, every State in the Union being represented in the contest.

Mrs. Rose Davidson, widow of the late Jesse Davidson and mother of Leander Davidson, one of our most prominent citizens, died Tuesday night in her 90th year, being the oldest lady in the county. The remains were interred in Lancaster Cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

A Stanford merchant writes us to know why we do not put our loafers or jail birds to work, clean up the burnt district and sow it in oats or sod it, saying that Shanks & Owsley will allow us to clean up their lots. We doubt this, as they seem to prefer to help our county by paying taxes on a vacant spot rather than sell or build themselves.

My article on R. L. Elkin's fowls has certainly gone the rounds. The Associated News Bureau of Philadelphia has written to him for a photo of the fowls, with a full description. The gullibility of man is wonderful. Speaking of chickens reminds me of a fight here Monday, in which the size of the parties would compare favorably with the Bantam and the Shanghai. No galls were used and no serious damage was done.

Mr. Edward Bishop, one of our most intelligent citizens, has solved the question—how to bring the gold and silver democrats together. He says if a man differs with you on the money question, manage every time his name is mentioned to call him a traitor, a scoundrel and a floater; that if you hear he has insinuated that you are not honest in your views, hunt him up and if he says that he does not doubt your sincerity, tell him that it is good for him he does not, as you intended to give him a good beating; then go and tell the people that he has sold out and he must have done so, for your views are generally correct.

The spelling contest in the Institute for a year's subscription to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, was lively, being engaged in by about 40, all of whom were anxious to win the prize, which was awarded to Mrs. T. C. Gulley, who is a constant reader of the paper, who is so accurate in orthography that it might have had something to do with preparing her to spell 45 out of 50 difficult words. There were six other contestants who only missed six words. Supt. J. Hunt McMurtrey, Conductor W. E. Lumley, Chairman B. S. Gowen and secretary Miss Janie Shumate are doing all in their power to make the sessions pleasant and profitable. B. S. Gowen, Milton Elliott, Jr., Mrs. T. C. Gulley and Miss Effie King constitute the committee on program. The discussions on the various subjects of vital importance to the growth of the school, are being engaged in by many of the teachers in an earnest manner, and much useful knowledge is being imparted. If I had the space I should like to give a more extended notice of the proceedings.

The democratic county committee finished its work Monday by nominating the balance of the county ticket and not a dissenting voice has been heard. They are all popular, capable men and the republican candidates will realize the fact that they are in a race before they reach the home stretch. They were not all given in the last issue and are as follows: For Judge, A. D. Ford; sheriff, Capt. I. M. Dunn; circuit clerk, J. W. Hamilton; assessor, J. L. McCauley; jailer, David Ross; magistrates—Lancaster, Isaac Myers; Paint Lick, Sam Cochran; Buckeye, W. M. Ray, Jr.; Bryantsville, J. H. Dunn. T. J. Hammond was nominated for constable in this precinct. The candidates are in close touch with the party, are identified with the interests of the people and there is no reason for any dissension or disaffection. It is understood that W. L. Lawson, who is now a deputy sheriff and very popular, will be one of Capt. Dunn's deputies. David Ross says that history will repeat itself, as he intends to play the Goliath act to a fine finish, Benge being the latter.

State Insurance Commissioner Comingle has revoked the charter of the Kentucky life and accident association of Louisville.

The trouble in the McCreary guards, of Frankfort, is at an end, the charges against Capt. Gaines having been withdrawn.

Mrs. Marcellus Ernest, of Cyrene, Ga., aged 13, has just given birth to a 9-pound baby, whose father is but 16.

There are 28 cases of small-pox at Birmingham, Ala.

A GREAT PREACHER IS DR. BOYETT.

PREACHERSVILLE, July 28.—The majority of preachers, I am sorry to say, believe that what is termed a "successful meeting" is one where large numbers are added to the church. This frequently happens, and "under sudden heat and passion" (the same way men kill each other) people join the church. It is refreshing to a close observer to run across a preacher like Rev. J. H. Boyett, of Lexington, who has been conducting a meeting at the Baptist church here for about 10 days, and which is largely attended. It is his predominating characteristic to shun excitement, even in the slightest form. His sermons, as everybody in Stanford knows, as he held a three weeks' meeting there some time since, are plain, practical, logical and convincing. Duty and love for fellow men is what he dwells upon. His sermons at Preachersville have been seed sown in good ground that will bring forth thirty, sixty and an hundred fold. I heard him say that some mothers let opportunities pass by to help their children, religiously, and make them dry their tears by telling them they are too young to join the church. "Such mothers," he added, "live to repent such action and are made to shed tears themselves over infidel children." The people of the Preachersville community are delighted with Dr. Boyett's preaching and I am sure feel thankful to Pastor Mahony for having him come to hold this meeting. Mr. F. F. Cummins, brother of County Clerk Cummins, and Mr. John Cress are the additions to date. The meeting, the preachers informed me, will close Friday night.

Rev. J. H. Boyett has added over 200 members to his church at Lexington since he became pastor there some time ago. He says there is seldom ever a service at his church, where, under no excitement, whatever, many are not added to the fold. His members now number about 540, eight of whom are his own children and he is hoping for the 9th soon to be converted. Dr. Boyett says some of his best preaching has been done outside of his pulpit. Some time preparing as many as six sermons in one hour, which he says he has frequently done, he has much time to visit his members, the sick and afflicted generally, and he thus improves each shining moment and scatters sunshine broadcast. There is no more powerful preacher in the Baptist denomination than Rev. J. H. Boyett.

The Stanford and Preachersville turnpike needs sand-papery—needs something done to it to make the rough edges smooth, for it is about as rough now as the road over the Rocky Mountains.

The teacher at the Hobbs school-house, near Preachersville, Miss Jennie Pettus, is one of the handsomest in the county, and she is now instructing a full school of bright boys and girls.

Liberty.

Monday was county court day and a large crowd was in town. The August term of circuit court will open next Monday.

Rev. J. E. Powell, a Baptist preacher from Louisville, conducted a series of night meetings at the Christian church last week.

The base ball game between Liberty and Dunnville was called off on account of rain. The game will probably be played next Saturday.

In noting the improvements of Liberty last week, we overlooked the large furniture store room which is being erected by Mr. Boyle Stone.

Dr. Pruitt, who practiced his profession in Liberty in his younger days, has returned here and located. He is staying at the Wilkinson Hotel.

A large crowd attended the basket meeting at the colored church here Sunday. Delegations were present from Hustonville, Dunnville and Yosemite.

U. S. Marshal Page was here last week. He and Sheriff Adams arrested Milton Wilson near Brush Creek and lodged him in jail. Wilson will be taken to Somerset and tried for selling liquor without license.

A movement is on foot to build a Baptist church here. Rev. Powell tells us the people have responded to his call for subscriptions very liberally. Two men have offered to donate lots on which to build and everybody seems anxious for the church. It is a worthy enterprise and should have the aid of every one.

Mr. Pat Whipp spent Sunday in Hustonville. Dr. Carpenter, of Hustonville was in town last week to see Miss Dollie Cowden. Dr. Ed M. Estes and Mr. K. L. Tanner, of McKinney, and June Reid and E. S. Stagg, of Hustonville, attended court here Monday. Several of our young people spent Sunday in Dunnville. Mrs. John Wesley, of Middleburg, was with Mrs. James Wesley Sunday.

A TRIP TO THE GOLDEN COAST, STORM AT SEA, & C.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

MILLEGEVILLE, July 28.—From the interest manifested by friends in my recent trip to California I have decided to offer a few lines for publication, hoping they may be of interest at least to some who have never visited the great West. Our trip was a success in every particular. Our first interesting experience was with a second class cyclone near Topeka, Kansas. At 6:30 A. M., July 2nd we were on Pike's Peak walking on drifts of snow 10 feet thick. That evening out of Pueblo, up the Arkansas river and through the Royal Gorge we began our ascent of the Rockies and on Saturday night at 10 o'clock we rolled into Salt Lake City on a train consisting of two baggage coaches and 17 sleepers. On Sunday morning July 4th, we listened an excellent sermon in the Christian church from Bro. E. L. Powell, of Louisville. Bro. B. F. Clay, of Kentucky, is pastor of this church. At 2:30 P. M. we attended the Christian Endeavor services in the great Mormon Tabernacle with a seating capacity of 12,000 and thousands were turned from the doors. At 7:30 we attended services in the Tabernacle conducted by the Mormons. I can not endorse all they preach but they are much better people than some think and in many instances can make the Protestants ashamed of themselves. Polygamy is no longer practiced among them.

We spent Monday morning in Ogden and Wednesday morning we reached San Francisco and spent 10 days attending the Christian Endeavor Convention and seeing the wonders in and for 100 miles around the city of the Golden Gate. On Saturday, July 17th, we started homeward (in an opposite direction) by steamer, "State of California," 840 miles up the Pacific coast to Portland, Oregon. We had wished that the trip would be a little rough so we could experience, to a small extent, life at sea, and we got more than our wish. We were on the ocean three days and 24 nights. The whole of Saturday night we were in a gale with waves running 40 feet high. Up to 11 o'clock numerous waves had run over the lower deck, drenching all passengers who happened to be outside the cabins. Our state room was on the upper deck and we were congratulating ourselves while those below were being drowned out, when all at once our good steamer, 300 feet long, dipped her nose in a monster wave and it seemed like she was going head-foremost to the bottom of the sea and the water came rolling over the railing in at our door and window, splashing on every berth and running three inches on the floor. It took one of the gangway gates off the lower deck and carried it away to sea. If any passenger or seaman had been near it he would have gone with it. About then I began to feel glad that I had tried to live a Christian. But that was the only ducking we got and our ship ploughed on through the waves, with prow and stern riding up and down from 30 to 50 feet at every plunge. George and my other room-mate were too sick to even notice that a storm was raging. I stood at the window watching and listening to the roaring of wind and wave for about an hour, when I retired and slept soundly, fully trusting Him who keepeth us in the hollow of His hand. The gale abated but little before noon Sunday. I was one of the fortunate 35 out of 400 passengers who did not imitate the whale that kept Jonah three days and nights in his society. I rode from stem to stern and from the bridge over the pilot house to the engine room and always made a full hand at the eight splendid meals served on board.

We spent one day in Portland with the everlasting snow-white mountains, Hood, Adams and St. Helens, in full view. We left Portland at 2:45 P. M. Tuesday, nearly 3,000 miles from home, and came by Spokane, Washington, via the Great Northern through Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Chicago and Cincinnati, arriving at Moreland at 12 o'clock Saturday night, safe and sound and with feelings of gratitude to my Heavenly Father for the pleasures enjoyed and especially the spiritual blessing experienced by meeting with the great Christian Endeavor Convention, a feeble account of which I desire to give to the public through the INTERIOR JOURNAL in the near future.

A. W. CARPENTER.

This is the way Miss Elvira Sydnor Miller describes a shirt waist worn by a certain young lady and it is enough to bewilder a flesh and blood man to even think of it: It was a rose-colored waist, which cast a glow over the skin beneath like a sunset over the Alpine snows, a sort of combination of sea shells and roses, strawberries smothered in cream, or peaches whose downy cheeks are flushed from the kisses of the sun.

A Word To You.

Having considered the question from almost every standpoint, we have decided to adopt the

THE CASH SYSTEM,

Beginning July 1, 1897, believing that it will be more satisfactory to both buyer and seller. No bad debts will accumulate, consequently we can sell goods cheaper. It will take much less capital, our expenses will be less and there is every reason why the cash system will prove satisfactory. We only ask you to try it awhile and if you find it is not to your advantage, we will not kick on your buying from merchants who sell on credit. We are satisfied we can sell you goods from 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper than the credit men and this should certainly be an inducement to you. Very truly,

QUEEN & CRESCENT.

During the Tennessee Centennial and International Exposition at Nashville, Tenn., a low rate special tariff has been established for the sale of tickets from Cincinnati and other terminal points on the Queen & Crescent Route.

Tickets are on sale daily until further notice to Chattanooga at $4.55 one way or $4.90 round trip from Junction City, the round trip tickets being good seven days to return; other tickets, with longer return limit, at $7.30 and at $9.95 for the round trip.

These rates enable the public to visit Nashville and other Southern points at rates never before offered. Vastly improved trains of the finest class are at the disposal of the passenger, affording a most pleasant trip, and enabling one to visit the very interesting scenery and important battle-grounds in and about Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain and Chickamauga National Military Park. Tickets to Nashville to visit the Centennial can be purchased at Chattanooga for $3.40 round trip. Ask your ticket agent for ticket via the Q. & C. Route South or write to

THE Louisville Post devotes nearly two pages of its Wednesday's edition to giving the names of convicts who have been pardoned since Gov. Bradley was inaugurated Dec. 10, 1895. The list embraces 675 and does not include those who have been restored to citizenship. Of the number, 32 were convicted of murder and sentenced for life, and 64 for manslaughter, making 96 turned loose, who had killed their man. The rest of the pardons include every grade of crime. To Gov. Bradley's credit be it said he has not pardoned nearly so many as Worthington, but he is partially responsible for Worthington's, as he could not get in his work unless a chance was given him. There can be no doubt that all this reckless use of the pardoning power has stimulated crime and bred a mob spirit. The people see how difficult it is to convict men of murder and other crimes and when, by chance almost, the courts do sentence, they see the ease with which pardons are secured, it is little wonder that soldiers are so often called into action to prevent Judge Lynch from executing summary and condign justice. The laws' delay and other methods resorted to to shield criminals together with a prodigal use of the pardoning power, make the way of the transgressor easy as well as make mob law some times necessary.

WHEN Marshal James fired Deputy Lee Dudley he sought to enjoin him for doing so in Judge Barr's court, claiming that as office deputy he was protected by the civil service rules. Judge Barr held that there was no difference between the office deputy and a field deputy and that the civil service law did not apply in either case, appointments expiring at the expiration of the superior officer. The case will be taken to the U. S. circuit court on appeal, but Mr. Dudley is gnawing a file and wasting his time and money. If the courts do not knock him out, which they are sure to do, the president will come to the rescue of the republican pie hunters.

WE believe it was old Billy Shakespeare who said: "Some are born great, some achieve greatness and some have greatness thrust upon them," but in all his philosophizing he never dreamed of a man becoming great or famous because of his capacity and propensity to look often and long upon the wine when it is red. Dr. Mooney, of Lexington, is the first to become famous or infamous in that line and his picture and a big write-up are going the rounds of the press. He claims to have taken 20 drinks of whisky a day for 50 years, making a grand total of 365,000 drinks that have passed down his gullet.

THOUGH the Senate refused in response to petitions from labor unions all over the country to confirm the appointment of Powderly, the professional labor fraud, as commissioner of immigration, McKinley has given the unions a slap in the face by reappointing him in recess. Had the trusts and combines demanded recognition the man at the White House would have responded with alacrity, but laboring men are only necessary evils and they can take their complaints to the devil and go to him themselves so far as the president is concerned. At least his action warrants that conclusion.

IT does seem that after four month's consideration of the tariff bill with the learned and erudite Davison there to boss the job, the republicans ought to have prepared a bill free from inaccuracies and contradictions. But they didn't. Many occur in the Dingley bill, one of which is especially interesting to growers on the Pacific coast. One paragraph makes the duty 25 cents per bushel on apples, while another makes it two cents a pound, or about $1 per bushel. The courts will therefore have to umpire the case.

SOMETHING good can be said most always about any thing, no matter how bad it may be as a whole. The Dingley tariff bill is a case in point. Atrocious as it is generally, it has one little redeeming clause. It increases the tax on cigarettes from 50c to $1 per 1,000.

THE advice of one who has been there is for every man who goes gold hunting in Alaska to take a dog with him. He'll need his flesh for food before he has been there a great while and anything else that will fill an aching void in his stomach.

Mr. McKINLEY is being complimented by certain newspapers for pardoning an old army comrade for robbing the mails out west, for which he was sentenced to five years imprisonment. The pardon was granted on receipt of a letter from the old robber addressed to the president as "My dear old Comrade", and simply asked him to help him out of trouble, without claiming innocence or giving any excuse for his crime. The action of the president in granting the pardon may speak well for his heart, but it is not creditable to his head. When a man commits such a crime as Allen did, sentiment should cut no figure in the case. He had forfeited his right to freedom and his release by the president shows that he is not made of the sterner stuff of which men holding the office he does should be made.

THE boot-licking Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal is dirty enough even to lick Boss Davison's boots, which he does by trying to apologize for his failure to get any pie for the 8th district. It does not reflect in least on him, the cringing creature says, for he is unequalled in the Kentucky delegation for hard work for his constituents. The trouble with Davison is that he is too light an animal and carries no respects or confidence in his make-up. Even the rats at Washington have taken his measure and dispatch him with a cold potato. The correspondent is frank enough to admit that the "jedge" does "rattle around in McCreary's seat," even if he does add that it is very little noticed.

THE Louisville A. P. A. s have received their reward. Charles E. Sapp, who has no other claim to recognition, except that he is president of that proscriptive organization, has been made collector of internal revenue at Louisville and Catholics can now go to hades. Sam J. Roberts, of Lexington, was also appointed collector in that district, which reminds us to say that so far as we have been able to discover Col. Forrester's charge that he had willfully prevaricated remains unchanged.

THE railroad commissioners who hold the fattest of sinecures, have just called attention to their existence by issuing a long order to railroads that they must keep sign-boards up, keep the weeds along the track down, keep the country stations open and warm and blow their whistles at crossings. This may be important, but it is hardly worth the $2,000 each that the State pays the commissioners.

SENATOR DEBOE says he will spend a few weeks winding up his law business at Marion. This is the first intimation that anybody ever had that the doctor had any law business. The jack of all trades usually succeeds in making a flummox at all, and this distressing accident in accentuating the fact in his effort to play the role of statesman.

McKINLEY has so far modified Cleveland's order under the civil service law as to open 450 new places, with total salaries of half a million, for the hungry horde. Watch for an entire abrogation of the law before McKinley's administration is a year old.

POLITICS

The prohibitionists of Jefferson county will put out a full municipal ticket. The President left yesterday for Lake Champlain to escape the office seekers.

W. O. Jones, of Grayson county, was nominated for State Senator on the 42d ballot.

Judgments for $12,490 were returned against Sheriff Martin in favor of Floyd county.

Because of the new tariff law importers of earthenware have decided to advance the price of crockery.

Maryland democrats in State convention to nominate a candidate for governor ignored the money question.

The St. James Gazette says Japan must fight this country or back down if the Hawaiian islands are annexed.

Bar silver has declined to 59 cents, making the metal value of silver dollar 45.63 cents, the low water mark.

The republicans of Knox instructed for Judge James H. Tinsley for appellate clerk. He made the race last time.

A tell-tale receipt strengthens the charge that Supt. Scott paid for favorable newspaper write-ups of the Eastern Asylum.

Robert J. Tracewell, former Congressman from the third Indiana district, has been selected for controller of the treasury.

The treasury department decides that the tariff bill went into effect at midnight before the day it was passed, that is at 12 M., July 23.

Judge Jackson, at Parkersburg, W. Va., unlike Judge Barr, holds that office deputies under a U. S. marshal are protected by the civil service law.

It is almost certain that the republicans will nominate J. G. Bailey, of Magoffin, for appellate clerk at the convention to be held in Louisville Aug. 10.

Thomas B. Welsh, of Jessamine, being the only candidate for the democratic nomination for Senator in 22nd Senatorial district, was declared the nominee by the committee.

It is reported at Lexington that the commissioners of the Eastern Kentucky Lunatic Asylum have threatened to resign at the end of 30 days unless Superintendent Scott is removed.

Judge Thomas M. Cooley, of Detroit, the famous constitutional lawyer, and author of "Cooley on the Constitution" everywhere recognized as a standard, has lost his mind and been taken to an asylum.

A dispatch says: Judge W. F. Hall, present democratic incumbent, will be a candidate for re-election as circuit judge. The Pineville district has 4,000 republican majority, but Hall says he will win.

The Dingley law means a democratic president in 1901 as certainly as the McKinley law meant a democratic president in 1893 and the Cleveland financial policy meant a republican president in 1897, but the trusts will have a Klondike at home for the rest of the present century.—N. Y. Journal.

The action of the trustees of Brown University in compelling the resignation of President Andrews, because he holds opinions on finance which do not agree with those entertained by rich patrons of the institution, is worthy of the severe condemnation that it is receiving on all hands. Senator Teller denounced it in a speech in Congress as one of the most shameful acts of abasement the world had ever seen. "Thank God," said he in impassioned tones, "that President Andrews was big enough to refuse to be stifled."

The operators of the Pittsburg district have approved the uniformity agreement, 90 operators being represented in the meeting. The operators will not deal with the Miners' Union but only their employees, there being a clause in the agreement that the commission shall be composed of employees. The agreement includes the abolition of company stores and provides for cash payment of wages twice a month.

Hubble,

Mrs. J. S. Minor has returned to her home in Louisville.

Miss Fannie Underwood will begin teaching here Monday.

Dave Purdon has moved to Rowland and taken charge of a barber shop. We wish him success.

Ed Minor has the champion hornless red calf of this community. It is four months old and weighs 350 pounds.

J. J. Walker sold to R. L. Hubble some 70-pound shoats at 3c. W. M. Hubble sold his yearling bull for $45 to Tom Walker, of Garrard.

Dr. J. B. Owsley is having the dwelling on the old Dr. Owsley farm near by re-covered and his renter, Mr. L. C. King, is making it all look like a new farm.

Some parties in this community have been offered 70c for their wheat, but when all are so well aware of the universal foreign demand for this product this year but few are disposed to accept the offer.

People regret here very much that J. E. Lynn has withdrawn from the race for county judge, but we know it will not be best to beat them too bad, so we will give them a little ease till we select another good man, and by that time perhaps the republicans will pick up some one who has enough brass to make the race.

Mr. G. A. Swinebroad is a trader. He left home last week with horse and carriage and some other equipments, and when seen by his friends in Lancaster Monday evening had only his umbrella of what he left home with, but in exchange he drove home some nice, red cows and young cattle, and may have brought home some cash also, but some think he was not that hard on those mountain people with whom he trades.

JOHN S. ORNDORFF.

The sad and sudden death of this sterling young man by an accident created a profound sensation in this community where he lived and labored. The shock was felt more keenly by those who knew him well and loved him for his manliness, kindness and great heart. As a son and brother he was all that could be desired. As a friend he was loved by all who had that friendship. His co-laborers on the L. & N. R. R. loved him as a brother, and their grief at his sudden death was manifested in many ways. This noble young man was almost idolized by his sisters and brothers. They truly lived and labored for each other and all that each one earned was held in common. A more beautiful home life could be found no where than that of this Orndorff family.

To his devoted sisters we especially tender our heart's deepest sympathy, for this cross is almost too hard to bear. May He who is able and willing to comfort them and the other loved ones left behind for a while, bear the cross for them and enable all of them to so live and act that they will meet him on the "shining shore" where it is always morning.

It is with much pleasure that we read the announcement of the dismissal of the libel suit in the Bell circuit court which was brought by a Mr. Ball some time ago against the INTERIOR JOURNAL. There was nothing in the whole matter against Mr. Walton who only copied an article from one of the daily papers in reference to some of Mr. Ball's business transactions.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

HOME NEWS.

DANKS fits spectacles scientifically.

WARREN & SHANKS, fine, new Candles.

WARREN & SHANKS, Fruit Cans, Jars and Gums.

LARGEST assortment of school tablets, best and cheapest. W. B. McRoberts.

THE Methodist church is being treated to a coat of paint. J. J. Belden & Co. are doing the work.

STRAYED.—A bronze Jersey heifer calf, 14 months old. Information of her thankfully received. H. T. Harris.

THERE are two preachers in town who were formerly telegraph operators—Eld. J. T. Sharrard and Rev. J. B. Crouch.

THE colored institute, Miss Kate Blain tells us, will be held at Hustonville instead of Danville, on a date to be named hereafter.

A NUMBER of leading republicans were here yesterday, drawn thither we suppose, by a desire to see what the democratic committee would do.

THE weather has been very pleasant this week, the disturbances predicted to precede the eclipse, failing to materialize. Fair, slightly warmer Friday.

WE have heard of none of our citizens who are honing to go to Klondyke, but there are a number of loafers who ought to go there, to hades or some other seaport.

THE game of base ball between the Stanford and Danville colored nines played here Wednesday afternoon was won by the home team by a score of 15 to 3. A large crowd witnessed it.

ONLY two candidates for the democratic nomination for county judge have been mentioned that we hear of—Messrs. James P. Bailey and T. M. Goodnight, and they not by authority.

A CALL signed by leading democrats of the East End on James P. Bailey to become a candidate for county judge appears in this issue. He would make a strong candidate and a capable judge.

A LARGE trunk was found on depot platform Sunday night when the colored excursion train left. It is marked "Miss Bettie Cohen, Mitchellsburg," and it can be had by applying to Horton Hayden.

HAMILTON COLLEGE, Lexington, ad. of which appears on our first page, is one of the best schools for young ladies in Kentucky. President J. B. Skinner is well known here and Lincoln county is always represented in his matriculates.

DIRT CHEAP.—By an arrangement with the publishers we can furnish Smith's History of Kentucky, the best and most complete ever issued, retail price of which is $5, and the INTERIOR JOURNAL one year for $3.50. Subscribe at once if you would take advantage of this unparalleled offer.

COFFEY.—James Coffey, father of Messrs. Moses and A. G. Coffey, of the Turnersville section, died at his home near Middleburg Tuesday morning, aged 78, and was buried in the Campbell burying ground near Turnersville at 10 o'clock Wednesday. He was a devout member of the Methodist church and a good man in many ways.

WHEAT TRUST.—The following gentlemen, who are neighbors, have gone into an agreement to hold their wheat for a better price and to use all honorable means to advance the price of that cereal: Messrs. Forestus Reid, Wm. Beck, S. T. Harris, T. A. Coulter, W. H. Murphy and William Burton. They own about 10,000 bushels and will keep it a long time rather than sell at the present price.

WE have $15 in our inside pocket which says that the collector's office for this district will be removed from Richmond to Danville. Long time ago in a conversation with the prospective collector, Hon. John W. Yerkes, he told us that it was not improbable, if he got the appointment, that the office would be removed. He is now in Washington urging the removal and what he goes after he generally gets.

THE Boss has recommended the following for postmasters: Lloyd Simpson at Stinnett, Anderson county; R. J. Engle, Grey Hawk, Jackson county; S. H. Graves, Nevada, Mercer county; W. R. Ward, Livingston, Rockcastle county; T. D. Johnson, Bagdad, Shelby county; J. H. Dickerson, Buckeye, Garrard county; J. L. Johnson, Kingsville, Lincoln county, and A. D. Root, Hedgeville, Boyle county.

THE Courier-Journal is not adding to its popularity here, except with a certain class of republicans, by permitting a correspondent who has no regard for the truth, to misrepresent democrats. If that paper is desirous of printing the truth, will it not say that the withdrawal of Mr. Lynn from the democratic ticket had nothing to do with the money question, as he himself voted for Bryan, or better still give in full the interview with Mr. Lynn published elsewhere in this issue?

STEPHENSON.—Mrs. Margaret McR. Stephenson, wife of W. T. Stephenson, of Crab Orchard, whose serious illness of pneumonia was noted in our last, died at 9 A. M. yesterday, aged 72. She was fully prepared for the great change and during her illness spoke often of her desire to be at rest. Over 53 years ago she joined the Presbyterian church here and having been faithful unto death she will now receive a crown of life. She was the mother of eight children, all but three, John F. J. A. and George Stephenson, having died. Her brother and sister, J. M. McRoberts and Mrs. Martha Jones, were with her in her last hours and witnessed the death struggle, whose pains no opiate was able to relieve. The funeral will occur this Friday, morning at 11 in the Baptist church at Crab Orchard when Rev. Ben Helm will officiate, after which the remains will be brought to Buffalo Cemetery for interment, arriving about 2 P. M.

TABLETS and school books, better and cheaper than ever. Penny's Drug Store.

THE annular eclipse of the sun came on time yesterday and the sky being cloudless a large number of people saw through a glass darkly that the moon was trying to blot out the light of the great luminary. Fully half of the sun's face was covered and the effect was to produce a hazy, mellow light like that of October.

WE are told that G. H. Patton, of Garrard, who has been appointed postmaster at Crab Orchard, over Ad Bastin, who was promised the job, will either have to go to his county to get bondsmen, or call on democrats, as there is only one republican in the Crab Orchard precinct who could help him to make a bond and he is a postmaster himself.

LYING AS USUAL.—An I. J. reporter asked Mr. James E. Lynn what he thought of the dispatch sent to the Courier-Journal by the correspondent here stating he had withdrawn from the race for county judge because of his sound money views and his dislike for mixing with the "crowd," which evidently means his running mates.

"It is as untrue as it is absurd," said he, "the correspondent knows, if he is at all posted on local politics, that the money question will cut no figure in the county races and that as far as those races are concerned, the democrats are practically united. While I was originally a sound money man, I supported Mr. Bryan cheerfully and certainly I would not object to being on a ticket with men who voted as I did, and who are so well worthy of the offices they seek. No, sir; the money question had nothing to do with my retiring from the race."

"What do you think of the charge that you were put on the ticket as a bait—for sound money men, Mr. Lynn?"

"Like the rest of the charges in the dispatch—false. I flatter myself to think that I was nominated because the committee believed that if elected I would fill the office the best I could, if not well."

Mr. Lynn is very much worried that such an erroneous statement as the C. J. concerning him gave, should gain circulation and thinks like the rest of us, that its correspondent should stick to facts or give up his job to one who has more regard for the truth.

John A. Wallace, son of John W. Wallace, the blacksmith, and Miss Mattie, the pretty daughter of W. B. Holderman, drove to Hustonville yesterday and were to have been married at 5 o'clock. Both are popular young people and their marriage is the result of a lengthy courtship.

Miss Virginia Fite, of Nashville, who will be pleasantly remembered in Danville as a visitor of Miss Annie Bruce, is to be married Tuesday of next week to a Mr. Adams, also of Nashville.—Advocate. Miss Fite was also the guest of Miss Mary Bruce, of this place, who gave a party in her honor.

Nicholas Warrisse and Marie Krome were to have been married at New Albany Tuesday, but the marriage was declared off by the prospective bride at the church. The couple were sweethearts in Alsace-Lorraine, and Warrisse after establishing himself in business in this country sent for her. She arrived here four weeks ago and preparations were made for the wedding, but she became homesick and dissatisfied and could not be persuaded to have the ceremony performed. Wednesday she left on her return to France.

DISTRICT CONVENTIONS, AUG. 14. DELEGATED CONVENTION ON 16 TO NAME JUDGE, &c.

At a meeting of the democratic county committee held at Stanford, Thursday, July 29, a motion was made, seconded and carried that the democrats of Lincoln county meet in mass convention in each magisterial district in Lincoln county at 2 P. M. Saturday, Aug. 14, 1897, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, which will meet in Stanford, Monday, Aug. 16, at 10 A. M. to nominate a candidate for county judge. It was ordered that said magisterial mass conventions also nominate a democratic candidate for magistrate and constable in each district at same time and place.

The Stanford district will meet at the court-house and will be called to order by D. F. Logan; the Hustonville district at Hustonville and will be called to order by J. L. Beck; the Waynesburg district at Kingsville and will be called to order by W. F. Camden; the Crab Orchard district at Crab Orchard and will be called to order by J. R. Edmiston. Stanford will be entitled to 11 delegates in the county convention, Crab Orchard 7, Hustonville 9, Waynesburg 7.

Superior Disc Drill.

McKinney, Ky., Apr. 22, '97.

MESSES. HIGGINS & MCKINNEY—Dear Sirs—I purchased one of your Superior Disc Drills in the Fall of 1896 and sowed 100 acres of wheat with it. I found it to be one of the best machines I ever used. It is far superior to all other drills. I would not undertake to sow a crop without one, for there is no choking up and getting out of order with them. They do their work perfectly and with light draft. The grass seeder is also a great improvement over other drills, for the grass seeder attachment can be used without using the wheat attachment. I recently sold a half interest to my neighbor, J. A. Givens, and he has been sowing oats and grass seed with it and is so well pleased with it that he carries it to shelter every night.
Yours truly, J. L. BECK.
